| Consent_1 | My name is [EnuName_Display] and I'm a member of a team of researchers conducting a study on behalf of the World Food Programme to better understand the situation of your households. The interview would cover information related to your household's food security, livelihoods, and general living conditions, as well as your needs. The information that you would provide is highly important and would also help us to improve our tools that are used to assess households' food security situation and needs in [country/region] and elsewhere.Your household has been selected by chance and the participation is voluntary. All information gathered during the interview are strictly confidential and will solely be used for scientific purposes with nothing identifying you or your household. Also, no information about you, or any other person in your household will be disclosed or given to any person(s), institution (s) or authorities. Your participation is highly appreciated and will not influence your assistance status (whether assisted or not).Could you please spare some time (around 60 minutes) for the interview?If you do not understand any of the questions, please say so and I will explain them.Please, indicate whether you agree for this interview to proceed or not (yes/no) _____.
